

The

PSMailers™

ADVANTAGE

Wilmer ensures our distributors achieve success when selling PSMailers by offering the following benefits and services.

Responsive, knowledgeable sales professionals go the extra mile.

We provide top-notch guidance to help our distributors choose which models and forms will work best for their customer's business size and budget.

Selling tools advantage.

Our goal is to make sure you have every tool needed to succeed. That's why we offer all the product and application information needed for both our equipment and forms. This includes brochures, flyers and direct mail postcards that can be easily imprinted with your logo and/or a personal message on it.

Product videos help increase sales.

Our short product videos walk you and your customers through all the advantages of each PSMailers model.

Live customer support.

Working together with our live support team, throughout the life of the equipment, ensures questions are quickly answered and remedies to technical situations solved.

Rewards incentives for every new sale.

Earn $50 for every new sale of equipment and $25 (on orders over $250) for each document sale to your prepaid Wilmer Rewards debit card.
